SEANCE 6: L'OBLIGATION

3 Pour parler de ce que quelqu'un n'est pas obligé de faire, j'utilise le verbe have to à la forme négative.

They don't have to carry their books around. Ils ne sont pas obligés de transporter leurs livres.

4 Je remarque la différence d'emploi entre mustn't (interdiction) et don't have to (absence d'obligation).

We mustn't be late.

On ne doit pas être en retard.

But we don't have to run.

Mais on n'est pas obligé de courir.

VOCABULARY: cherche dans le dictionnaire

To get detention : être collé To talk back : ...contredire (un professeur)

To spit: ...cracher...

To be late: ..être.en.retard. To forget: .oublier

To write lines: ... écrire des lignes To bring lunch: apporter son déjeuner

To swear : .jurer To clean:nettoyer To scrape: ..gratter..... To come in: entrer

To stay after school : rester après l'école

To carry books : ...porter des livres

1. Listen (or read) the dialogue than match

Dialogue :

- -Allie, tell me, what do you have to do in your school when you get detention?
- Well, if we talk back to a teacher, we have to come on Saturday morning.If we swear er spit, we have to clean the tables in the cafeteria. If we forget our homework or our books, we have to write lines.

And er... If we are late, well... That depends on the teacher. Usually we have to come in twenty minutes earli the next day.

And er... One last example: if we chew gum in class we have to stay after school and scrape gum from under the tables with a ballpoint pen. Yuk!

 American and British students get detention if they don't respect the rules. What do they have to do when they get detention? Listen. Match the elements from each box.

If we		we have to
talk back to a teach	her •
swear		write lines
spit		come in twenty minutes early the next day
forget our homework		• come on Saturday morning
forget our books	1./	clean the tables in the cafeteria
are late	•

Allie gives one last example. Complete her sentence.

If we chew gum in class we have to stay after school and scrape gum from under the tables with a ballpoint pen

· What is her last word:

Yummie!

