

Devoirs 3èmes / tâche finale projet « Romeo and Juliet / West Side Story »

Hello all of you.

Most of you have sent or dropped at school their short stories and letters, congratulations. Those who haven't done it yet, please hurry, and if you have any question send an email as soon as you can. If you need to meet me, I'm at school every Monday, Wednesday and Friday in the morning.

Now let's move on to the last step, the final task about our « tragedy » writing.

As announced, it's now time to write the dialogue for one of the scenes.

Out of your short story, that I corrected and sent you back, choose one scene, one key moment and develop it into a dialogue, like the balcony scene from « Romeo and Juliet » or « America » from « West Side Story ».

We will work on the a selection of your dialogues and perform them in class, so they need to be with a minimum of two characters, and last a minimum of five minutes.

Important : In English, one doesn't say for example : « I love you » ~~said she~~. But « I love you » she said.

Use » he asked », « he replied »

SEnd it back to me or drop it at school by the end of the week, Friday, April 17th.

Take care

Teacher
